What a grand family medicine Ayer's Sarsaparilla is! Good for the child, good for the grandparent. Generation
after generation has used it. And today it is the one great family medicine the world over. Always keep a bottle of it in the house. Sometime during the year some member of the family will certainly need it.
You can surely trust medicine that has been used for over sixty years. Tested and tried, and never found wanting.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

is the best family medicine that ever was made. It makes pure blood, and pure blood is the source of good health.

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "Ayer's."

IN THE NAHIKU RUBBER GROVES

the trail as to give the traveler a cooling touch of the spray, while others have cut notches deep back in to the palms.

Forest jungles are at hand all the way, a rank undergrowth blanketing the trunks of the trees. Even the steep sides of the gulch in places produce forest trees. Here and there you look straight down into the tops of trees that apparently are rooted in air, for the ground where they spring is shut from view by the narrow margin of the trail. The seedlings must have taken a horizontal start from the cliff and as they grew turned their heads upward, for there is not a ledge of earth visible. At an angle of vision of probably ninety-nine per cent. from the perpendicular, until the eye rests on the bottom of the chasm far below.
Wild bananas grow in great profusion every where and there, showing fruit of good development. In one dripping notch the bunches hung out, thirty or forty feet overhead, directly over the inner edge of the trail.
At the summit where the trail drops down to the head of Keane's valley, a rest was taken while Mr. Pogue showed the Governor and the Land Commissioner, on a map taken from a ditch labor shanty there, the location of lands that had been a subject of discussion between Mr. Pratt and him in Honolulu.

A few yards below a fairly good wagon road was taken through the valley, a distance of about three miles, into Keane's village. Plunging down a steep trail of a few rods through a thicket the cavalcade emerged at the house of D. W. Napihu, which serves as the local hotel. In the gathering dusk, before the halt, the Stars and Stripes and the Hawaiian flag were hoisted on a flagpole in the yard.

Having taken turns at the wash basin and had an hour's rest the party were ushered into the dining room to a substantial dinner of roast pig and a great variety of other comestibles all well cooked.
Although the Governor had made it known that this was not a speechmaking tour, it was found that the people were eager to meet him and he gave away. Word was accordingly sent abroad and soon the natives—men, women and children—came flocking in with lanterns from miles around. The meeting is left for another letter.

HOW DIPHTHERIA IS CON-TRACTED.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it not only cures the cold, but greatly lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. There is no danger in giving this remedy, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. For

BEAUTIFULSKIN

Soft White Hands Luxuriant Hair Produced by CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN USE CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients, and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines, in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and best baby soap in the world.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour, Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment, to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and soreness, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. 1 ENVELOPE is often sufficient to cure the severest humours, with loss of hair, when all other fails.
